About this doggo

Bojangles is about 7 years old. You may be thinking oh gosh, a hound... But his personality is more like a lab. He loves people and LOVES toys. We think the perfect home for Bo would be willing to always have a great selection of toys. Bojangles enjoys going on walks; he's a gentleman on the leash! Bojangles connects deeply with the people who are constant in his life. He would like to be your one and only, other pets aren't for him. As a hound, small animals and cats are just a little too tempting, and he is not a fan of sharing his people with other dogs. Don't worry, he promises to give you all the love and attention you will ever need. Bojangles is a volunteer and staff favorite.

BoJangles is the sweetest baby boy that perceives himself a lap dog! He is the gentlest with humans but still loves to play, especially with stuffed animals! He's been an inspiration for weight loss, starting at 122 lbs of dog! He definitely won't let you sit on the couch all day! He's not the biggest fan of other dogs, but honestly most of us are not the biggest fan of other people and that's okay! He already knows how to be your perfect companion, so why choose anyone else?

Bo is 10/10 the best, most handsome dog I've ever met. He is always eager to show you his latest stuffed toy, and he's the best companion for long walks in the park. Like any big dog he thinks he can fit in your lap, and it's true: he gives the BEST snuggles. we love Bojangles!

Pros: Very warm and snuggly. Tolerates nail trims and handling like a champ. Has a very squishy chest that is amazing to pet. Walks on a leash like a pro. Plays fetch and lazes in the sunshine. Smart and likes to show you how amazing he is at shaking hands.

Cons: brays like a hunting dog to let you know when he sees something fantastic.

Highly recommend. Offers biggest hugs, always willing to clean your plate and gives the best grins. Has been previously loved, is starting to show his years, but still has lots of mileage.

This Bojangles is so much more than advertised! His tail wags more than expected and his ears are softer than I could have imagined. What a bargain! I know the memo said he was a happy boy, but I never would have believed how often he smiles and is happy to just be by your side. Not to mention, there's not a more photogenic hound out there, not even in Hollywood.

A good boy on leash: check.

Shares toys with you: check.

Best hugs on the block: check.

Volunteer and staff favorite: CHECK!

Although this dog was bigger than expected, there was much more to hug and it was very comfortable, which definitely moved it into my pros list. I also loved how confident he was after completing his tricks. All in all, I'd say I'm very satisfied with my experience with Bojangles, and I'd definitely recommend him to anyone that's interested!
